This open plan, one bedroomed flat is roomy, light and offers self-contained living. The kitchen area has storage cupboards, stainless steel sink and drainer, fridge and oven. This well situated property is a great city studio for those wanting to live near the bustling High street but away from the noise. Flat D sits at the top of number 364 and comes equipped with all the essentials you will need. The High Street location is perfect for the shops, bars and restaurants that Bangor has to offer, and there are numerous supermarkets just a short walk away. The University buildings and train station are also just a short walk away.
