Church House

The Property:

This stunning four bedroom, two bathroom semi-detached house offers an exceptional blend of classic charm and modern convenience, thoughtfully arranged across spacious, light filled interiors. Upon entering, you are greeted by a decorative glass door and elegant flooring, setting a tone of sophistication. The generous hallway, adorned with glass panel doors, leads to a grand reception room brimming with period features – ornate ceiling mouldings, a marble fireplace, and a vintage chandelier – echoing the heritage of the home. The open plan kitchen and dining area stands out with its central island, modern appliances, integrated wine rack, and rich wood cabinetry. Each bedroom is designed for comfort and tranquillity, with high ceilings, large windows, and built in storage, while the bathrooms offer sleek contemporary finishes, walk-in showers, and luxurious bathtubs, all bathed in natural light.

Beyond the interiors, the property continues to impress with its exceptional outdoor spaces. The extensive, mature gardens provide a private oasis, featuring expansive lawns bordered by privacy hedging and majestic trees that create a peaceful, secluded setting – perfect for family gatherings, children's play, or quiet relaxation.

The low maintenance gravel rear garden with a stepping stone path and storage shed offers additional versatility for outdoor living and entertaining. Practicality is ensured with a large gravel driveway leading to a spacious double garage, ideal for DIY enthusiasts or those seeking a home gym space. The well organised utility room, complete with outdoor access, enhances everyday convenience. Throughout the home, natural light pours in from large windows and skylights, highlighting tasteful neutral décor and quality finishes, while period detailing adds warmth and character to the inviting living spaces.

This remarkably versatile family home combines timeless elegance with modern functionality, set within beautifully landscaped grounds. With its array of high value features and the promise of an exceptional lifestyle, early viewing is highly recommended – properties of this calibre and character are rarely available and are expected to attract significant interest. Don't miss the opportunity to secure your dream family home.
