Description

Nestled along a peaceful single-track country lane in the sought-after area of Penyrheol, Rose Cottage is a truly unique four-bedroom detached home believed to date back almost 300 years. Beautifully combining period charm with a thoughtfully designed modern extension, this exceptional property enjoys an elevated position with breathtaking panoramic countryside views, while remaining less than a two-minute drive from Griffithstown and its range of local amenities, schools and transport links.

Offering spacious and versatile accommodation throughout, the property is perfectly suited to modern family living. The welcoming entrance hall provides practical space for coats, boots and utilities, with plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer, while a dedicated home office enjoys French doors opening directly onto the garden - ideal for those working from home.

The charming split-level galley kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, a traditional Belfast sink, integrated oven and electric hob, along with space for additional appliances. Flowing naturally into the dining area, this is an ideal space for everyday family meals or entertaining guests. A convenient ground floor shower room and WC can be found to the left of the dining room.

At the heart of the home is the spacious living room, featuring an impressive stone wall and fireplace with a cosy log-burning stove and a striking spiral staircase leading to the first floor. Beyond, the bright conservatory makes the most of the property's spectacular elevated position, again offering uninterrupted panoramic views across the surrounding areas and providing a wonderful additional reception space throughout the year.

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including three generous doubles and a comfortable single room, three of which benefit from fitted wardrobes. The spacious family bathroom features a freestanding bath, separate corner shower, WC and vanity unit.

Outside, the property continues to impress with its generous, tiered rear garden designed to make the most of the outstanding views. Multiple patio seating areas provide perfect spaces for relaxing or entertaining, while the central lawn, ornamental fish pond and lower AstroTurf play area create an excellent family-friendly outdoor environment. To the front, a driveway provides off-road parking for two vehicles alongside a detached double garage with electric roller door, inspection pit, power and plumbing. Steeped in history and wonderful quirks throughout, full of original character features and surrounded by beautiful countryside, Rose Cottage offers a rare opportunity to purchase a truly special family home in a peaceful rural setting, without sacrificing convenience.
