THE PROPERTY

Situated close to the heart of this popular and picturesque village, this characterful period home is beautifully presented throughout and offers surprisingly spacious and well-proportioned accommodation. Enjoying a pleasant outlook to the front towards the parish church, the separate enclosed garden to the rear feels like a little oasis, offering a wonderful sense of privacy together with a leafy outlook. The useful stone outbuilding provides valuable additional storage and would be ideal for keeping bikes, garden equipment or even a vehicle.

ACCOMMODATION

Having been improved by the current owners, the accommodation very much retains its character and good room sizes typical of the era. An entrance lobby leads into a lovely front sitting room with attractive brick and stone fireplace housing a modern wood-burning stove. An opening leads through to the dining room, and there's the option here to possibly reinstate another open fireplace which is currently not in use. Beyond, a separate kitchen is fitted with a range of sage green units with spaces for an electric cooker, fridge freezer and dishwasher, and an attractive ceramic sink unit. On the first floor is a good size bathroom with electric shower over the bath and glass screen, pedestal wash hand basin and low level WC. The two double bedrooms are very generous, with one overlooking the pretty street scene to the front, and the other overlooking the rear.

OUTSIDE

To the rear, the property benefits from a right of way across the end of the terrace, providing access to its own attached stone-built garage/store. Currently used by the owners for vehicle storage, this versatile space could equally lend itself to use as a workshop, studio or hobby area, subject to any necessary consents and alterations.

The property has the benefit of a shared courtyard immediately behind the cottage, over which the neighbouring property enjoys shared rights of use. An attached utility/store provides further useful storage and benefits from power and light, together with plumbing and space for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

Beyond the courtyard, a shared footpath runs alongside, providing access for this property and neighbouring properties to their individual gardens. The property itself enjoys a particularly good-sized lawned garden with a lovely leafy outlook, including views towards the village church tower. The garden is fully enclosed by substantial fencing and attractive old stone walling, creating a private and pleasant outdoor space. There is a dedicated area for those wishing to grow their own fruit, vegetables or flowers, together with an adjoining timber summerhouse.

SITUATION

The property forms part of a picturesque street scene towards close to the centre of this attractive village. Winsham enjoys a lovely setting in the heart of the South Somerset countryside, close to the borders of Devon and West Dorset, making it an excellent base from which to enjoy all that this particularly beautiful part of the country has to offer. Despite its rural surroundings, the village is well placed for access to the coast and enjoys good road connections via the A358, A30 and A303.

Winsham has a strong and active community, with a community run village shop and post office, primary school, church, village hall and playing fields, together with a good selection of local societies, clubs and social activities. The nearby country towns of Chard (4 miles), Crewkerne (6 miles) and Beaminster (8 miles) provide a wider range of everyday amenities and facilities, with Crewkerne also offering a Waitrose supermarket and mainline railway station with services to London Waterloo. Winsham has won several regional awards for “village of the year and best small village”.

The stunning UNESCO Jurassic Coast is within easy reach, with the popular coastal resorts of Lyme Regis, Charmouth and West Bay all around half an hour's drive away. Here you can enjoy beautiful coastal walks, fossil hunting, fishing and swimming, together with a wealth of other outdoor pursuits.

Taunton, the county town, lies approximately 18 miles away and provides an extensive range of shopping, recreational and cultural facilities, together with access to the M5 motorway and a mainline railway service to London Paddington. Further leisure attractions in the surrounding area include the historic Forde Abbey, Cricket St Thomas Lakes and Gardens and Cricket St Thomas Golf Club. Whilst the nearby towns of Chard and Ilminster have a good range of facilities in their attractive town centres, and both lie within a short drive.
