FULL DESCRIPTION

Claypath Court is an extremely well maintained block of City Centre Apartments designed for the over 55's with safety, friendship convenience and privacy in mind. 5 minutes walking distance of the market place. Having lift and stair access to all floors and telecom entrance system. At the rear of the property there is a communal garden and gated parking. This prestigious development was a former post office building and is now Grade II listed

Benefits of living in this type of accommodation include gated parking, refuse chute, lift as well as stairs, reading rooms, communal areas, laundry rooms, residents lounge with kitchen facilities, dining areas and guest suite for visitors or family.

This particular apartment is beautifully maintained and comprises: entrance hallway with large storage cupboard, fitted kitchen, lounge/dining area, stylish shower room and two double bedrooms.

Durham City Centre is currently receiving a huge amount of new investment, just a short walk to transport links and the vast wealth of local shops, bars and restaurants. Also close to both the A690 and A1(M) motorway for great commuter links to other regional centres.

Internal inspection is essential to appreciate what this property has to offer.
