SUMMARY

The property has undergone an extensive refurbishment, resulting in an immaculately presented home finished to an excellent standard throughout. Improvements include incredibly attractive premium double glazing, newly fitted front door and internal doors, completely re-plastered, extensively re-wired and re-plumbed, elegant column radiators throughout, new LVT flooring to the ground floor and a brand-new boiler.

The property is approached via a generous block-paved driveway providing off-road parking for approximately three vehicles. Stepping inside, a bright and welcoming entrance hall leads into an inviting living room, complete with a newly installed log burner creating a warm and cosy feel. Stylish Crittall-style double doors open into a generously proportioned kitchen, which flows seamlessly into the conservatory, providing a lovely additional living or dining space with French doors opening onto the rear garden. The ground floor accommodation continues with two generous double bedrooms, with bedroom three benefiting from a versatile dressing area, which could equally be utilised as a home office space., alongside a recently overhauled bathroom.

Upstairs, a thoughtfully designed loft conversion creates an impressive principal bedroom suite. The bright and airy landing is enhanced by a skylight and leads into the generously proportioned bedroom, where additional skylights, fitted with high-quality blinds, allow plenty of natural light to flood the space. The room also benefits from excellent eaves storage and a large storage cupboard, while a luxurious bathroom completes the first floor, creating a private and versatile first-floor space.

Externally, the rear garden has been thoughtfully improved and offers a wonderful space for both relaxing and entertaining. A newly laid patio is complemented by a decked seating area, ideal for making the most of the sunshine, while the property also benefits from spacious side access providing additional practicality.
