Situation

Avening is a picturesque Cotswold village located just a few miles north of Tetbury in Gloucestershire. Built from the area's distinctive honey-coloured stone, it features charming period cottages, a historic parish church, and a renowned primary school and welcoming pub. Surrounded by rolling countryside and scenic footpaths, Avening offers a peaceful rural atmosphere while remaining close to the market town amenities of Tetbury. With its strong sense of community and quintessential English character, Avening is a classic example of a Cotswold village.
