Situated within one of Barrow's sought-after residential areas, this substantial three-bedroom family bungalow occupies a pleasant position within its own generous grounds, nestled between impressive Victorian properties in a tree-lined cul-de-sac. Offering spacious and versatile accommodation with considerable potential for additional bedroom space, the property is well placed for local schools and sixth form facilities, bus routes, Furness General Hospital and the historic Furness Abbey. Set back from the road behind a private driveway and enclosed by walled gardens with parking, detached garage and gated pathways to the front and rear gardens. Internally, the well-proportioned accommodation comprises of spacious family lounge with attractive fireplace and direct access to the front garden, adjoining kitchen breakfast room, further kitchen area, utility room, secondary reception room, cloakroom/WC, dining room, two shower rooms and three bedrooms over two floors, one with a dressing room and walk in wardrobe. Flexible accommodation means that this home is ideal for an elderly relative, teenager or multi-generational living. Complete with the first floor having loft space for storage with roof windows, offering potential for conversion subject to any necessary consents. Externally, the established gardens feature mature trees and shrubs, flower beds and an ample flagged patio, providing an attractive and private setting for entertaining and family enjoyment. Offered for sale with no onward chain, this substantial home offers generous accommodation, flexible living arrangements and considerable potential in a highly regarded residential area. Early viewing is strongly recommended.
