Some More Information

A particularly well-finished four bedroom detached home offering a strong balance of modern specification, practical layout and village positioning, suited to tenants looking for space that works day to day without compromise.

The property centres around a standout open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, designed to be the main hub of the home. This plot benefits from a slightly upgraded kitchen specification, finished with quartz work surfaces and integrated appliances, giving a sharper overall feel compared to standard units. Vaulted ceilings and rooflights bring in a significant amount of natural light, while bi-fold doors open directly from this space, creating a layout that works equally well for everyday family use and more social occasions. Herringbone flooring runs across the ground floor, adding a more considered finish and tying the main living areas together effectively. A separate utility room sits just off the kitchen, helping to keep the main space clean and functional.

Alongside this, there is a separate front-facing living room, providing a more private space away from the main hub, as well as a ground floor WC.

Upstairs, the layout continues to work well. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite, with three further bedrooms offering flexibility for family use, guest space or home working depending on requirement. The main bathroom is finished in a clean, modern style consistent with the rest of the property.

Externally

Externally, the property is arranged to provide a practical and usable outdoor space without unnecessary upkeep. The rear garden has been set out to offer a good level of privacy, with a layout that works well for both day-to-day use and more social settings, particularly with direct access from the main living space.

To the front, the property benefits from driveway parking alongside a garage, giving straightforward parking and storage. The overall setting is tidy and well-kept, in keeping with the surrounding development and reinforcing the modern feel of the home.

Location

From a location perspective, the property sits within a well-regarded village setting with strong access links via the A120 towards Stansted Airport and the M11, as well as Chelmsford for mainline rail services. Felsted School is within approximately three miles, which will be a key consideration for those specifically looking to position themselves within reach of one of the area's more established independent schools.
