Immediately adjoining the house are the formal gardens, comprising a generous patio, ideal for outdoor entertaining and manicured lawns enclosed by attractive timber-railed fencing. Beyond, an expanse of closely mown pasture sweeps gracefully down towards the lake.

Extending to just over three-quarters of an acre, the lake is simply enchanting and stocked with fish and is fringed with water lilies and Irises and providing a picturesque focal point within the grounds. A charming summer house with jetty in an idyllic setting overlooks the water. Beyond the lake lies an area of mature woodland together with a small pond providing further biodiversity, privacy, and a real sense of seclusion. Sweeping grassland extends to the west of the house creating a feeling of space and a captivating setting for this exceptional country home.
