Bourne.

Guide Price - £100,000

- Attractive parcel of land within the North Wessex Downs National Landscape
 - Idyllic Countryside Outlook
 - Direct road access
 - Used for equestrian grazing

Butler's Field presents an excellent opportunity to acquire an attractive parcel of land situated on the edge of the sought-after village of St Mary Bourne. Extending to approximately 1.39 hectares (3.43 acres) of pasture, the land enjoys a peaceful rural setting surrounded by established hedgerows and has a beautiful mature oak tree, creating a naturally sheltered and appealing landscape.

The land is currently used for horse grazing but offers potential for a range of agricultural, equestrian, or amenity uses (subject to planning permission). The flat nature of the land provides an ideal environment for livestock, horses, or small-scale agricultural enterprises. The field benefits from a water supply.

The boundaries are well-defined with a combination of post-and-wire fencing and natural hedgerow, giving the land a sense of privacy while retaining attractive views across the surrounding village. Its position close to the village makes it particularly accessible while still offering a tranquil rural atmosphere.

This parcel of land represents a rare opportunity to acquire an appealing block of pasture within this desirable part of Hampshire.
