WHY ORTON RIGG?

Small rural settlement just one mile from the villager of Great Orton where you will find a pub, primary school and butchers. The area is renowned for wild life and is just a few minutes from The Watchtree Nature reserve for excellent cycling and walks. Situated to the west of the city of Carlisle, it allows easy access into the city and all its amenities, as well as being minutes away from Orton Grange and Dalston. West Cumbria is easily accessed via the nearby A595, and the nearby by-pass offers quick access to the M6. The property sits in a plot with picturesque views of the surrounding countryside and nearby fells.
