This well-presented and characterful Victorian terrace house is situated on a popular residential road approximately 1.25 miles west of Reading town centre, and conveniently within a short walk of a wealth of local amenities. These include Reading West train station (serving Reading, Paddington, Basingstoke and Newbury), a frequent 24-hour bus service, Battle Library, various gyms, and several green spaces including Prospect Park, as well as a range of shops, supermarkets, cafés, pubs and restaurants.

Thoughtfully renovated throughout, the property offers a desirable blend of charming period features complemented by modern finishes. This stylish home sits behind a low-level wall, with a pathway leading to the front door.

The property opens into a naturally bright living room featuring a log burner, with stairs rising to the first floor positioned between the living room and dining room. The versatile living room benefits from a front aspect bay window and feature fireplace. To the rear, the dining room enjoys garden access and includes an under-stairs storage cupboard.

The dining room opens into a fitted kitchen with a side aspect window overlooking the rear garden, and a door leading to the ground floor shower room. This impressive space features a vaulted ceiling with skylight and a heated towel rail.

On the first floor, two good-sized bedrooms are arranged in the familiar and versatile '2+1' configuration, with a spacious three-piece bathroom accessed via bedroom one. The bathroom is fitted with a luxury roll-top bath.

Additional benefits include UPVC double glazing throughout, gas-fired central heating, and fibre broadband availability.

Externally, the property is further enhanced by a long, east-facing rear garden, offering a blank and level canvas for the new owner to personalise.
