DESCRIPTION

Argoed Hall is an impressive and substantial four-bedroom period residence arranged over four floors, extending to approximately 2,835 sq ft. Forming part of the historic Argoed Hall, the property offers generously proportioned accommodation throughout, combining character features with flexible living space ideal for family occupation.

The lower ground floor provides a spacious kitchen/dining room with bay window, creating a practical and sociable space for everyday living. This level is further complemented by a useful utility room, a separate storage room and a WC.

To the ground floor is a striking sitting room with a deep bay window, offering an elegant and light-filled reception space well suited to both entertaining and relaxation.

The first floor hosts two generous en-suite bedrooms, including a particularly spacious principal bedroom with bay window, providing views across the Dee Valley. The second floor offers two additional well-proportioned bedrooms, one of which benefits from an en-suite, together with a family bathroom, providing excellent flexibility for guests, older children or home working.

Overall, the property offers substantial accommodation arranged across four floors, retaining a strong sense of character while providing versatile living space within a highly regarded and distinctive setting.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via an impressive gated driveway leading through mature woodland to the Argoed Hall setting. The grounds are a particular feature, comprising attractively maintained communal lawns bordered by established trees and stone walls, creating a private and parkland-style environment. The elevated position affords pleasant outlooks across the surrounding grounds and towards the Dee Valley beyond, while the setting provides a sense of seclusion and grandeur rarely found. The driveway and approach further enhance the feeling of arrival, complementing the period architecture of the building and its tranquil surroundings.

DIRECTIONS

From Llangollen town centre proceed east on the A5 towards Wrexham. After approximately 1 mile turn left signposted for Froncysyllte. Continue down Gate Road and follow the road for a short distance, where the gated entrance to Argoed Hall will be found on the left-hand side. Proceed through the gates and follow the driveway to reach 1 Argoed Hall.

SITUATION

Argoed Hall is set in an elevated and highly regarded position on the edge of the sought-after village of Froncysyllte, enjoying a private and mature setting surrounded by woodland and landscaped grounds. The village is internationally recognised for the nearby Pontcysyllte Aqueduct, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and offers a strong community together with scenic walks along the Llangollen Canal and the River Dee.

The vibrant town of Llangollen lies a short distance away and provides a good range of shops, cafés, public houses and everyday amenities. More extensive facilities are available in Wrexham, Oswestry and Chester, all of which are within comfortable travelling distance. The area is well placed for access to the wider North Wales and Shropshire countryside, making it ideal for those seeking a balance of rural surroundings and convenience.

SCHOOLING

The area is well served by a range of both primary and secondary schooling. Local primary schools are available in Froncysyllte and the surrounding villages, with further options in Llangollen. Secondary education is provided by well-regarded schools in Llangollen and Wrexham, with additional independent and further education options also accessible in the wider area, making the location suitable for families seeking a choice of educational facilities.

SERVICES

We understand that the property benefits from mains water and electricity, together with a brand new gas-fired boiler. Drainage is via a private system. There is an annual service charge of approximately £3,500, please ask agent for further details.

TENURE

The property is said to be of freehold tenure and vacant possession will be granted upon completion.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING (AML) CHECKS

We are legally obligated to undertake anti-money laundering checks on all property purchasers. Whilst we are responsible for ensuring that these checks, and any ongoing monitoring, are conducted properly; the initial checks will be handled on our behalf by a specialist company, Movebutler, who will reach out to you once your offer has been accepted. The charge for these checks is £30 (including VAT) per purchaser, which covers the necessary data collection and any manual checks or monitoring that may be required. This cost must be paid in advance, directly to Movebutler, before a memorandum of sale can be issued, and is non-refundable. We thank you for your cooperation.
