This attractive extended 1930s home is set along Coleridge Vale Road South and provides spacious, well-balanced accommodation that has evolved over the years to meet the needs of a growing family. Retaining period character alongside practical modern additions, the house offers versatile living spaces and a particularly pleasant rear garden, all within easy reach of everyday amenities.

A welcoming entrance hall sets the tone for the property. To the front, the sitting room enjoys a wide bay window flooding the room with natural light, while an open fire creates a warm focal point. To the rear, the dining room opens into the kitchen forming a sociable open plan area ideal for family life and entertaining. A useful utility room and cloakroom add practicality.

Upstairs, four bedrooms are arranged around the landing. The principal bedroom benefits from a bay window, echoing the character of the reception room below. The remaining bedrooms are well proportioned and served by a family bathroom and a separate shower room.

The property is approached via a driveway providing off-road parking and access to a large single garage. A garden lies to the front, while the rear garden is a particular highlight — arranged with lawn, established planting and seating areas ideal for al fresco dining, all enclosed by timber fencing to create a private and secure setting.

Coleridge Vale Road South is a highly convenient residential position just a short walk from playing fields and Clevedon's town centre, offering shops, cafes and everyday services. The seafront and coastal walks are also easily accessible, making this an excellent setting for both families and those seeking a well-connected lifestyle.

A characterful family home combining period charm with practical space in a central and convenient location — perfectly suited to modern living.

“A classic 1930s home thoughtfully extended for modern family living”
