

The Bungalow Greatford Road, Uffington, Stamford, PE9 4SP

Occupying a good-sized plot on the edge of the village and enjoying open field views, this three bedroom detached bungalow offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a property with scope to modernise and improve. The home is offered with NO CHAIN and presents significant potential to enhance or extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

The accommodation includes a spacious sitting room, kitchen, three bedrooms and a bathroom, providing well-proportioned living space that can be adapted to suit a range of needs.

Externally, the property sits within a generous plot with gardens surrounding the bungalow, offering plenty of space for landscaping or further development potential. A standout feature is the large double garage, which benefits from a vehicle inspection pit, making it particularly appealing for car enthusiasts or those requiring workshop space.

The property currently benefits from electric heating and enjoys a peaceful position while still providing easy access to Stamford and the surrounding countryside.

A rare opportunity to acquire a bungalow with excellent potential in an attractive edge-of-village setting, early viewing is recommended to appreciate the plot, outlook and possibilities on offer.
