An attractive period property situated well for Canterbury City centre providing well presented and extensive accommodation. The property has been adapted to provide letting rooms comprising five bedrooms though the house could of course be reverted to owner occupation as required. On the ground floor is a sitting room to the front, an elegant hallway and further reception (currently used as a fifth bedroom). To the rear is a good sized kitchen and access to the courtyard. On the first floor are four bedrooms, a shower room and additional w/c. The rear courtyard is currently paved and to the front is a shared private road with one parking bay for each property. The property benefits from gas fired central heating and being offered for sale with no forwards chain.

The property is located close to Canterbury Christchurch University main campus and with easy access to Canterbury City centre. Canterbury boasts an extensive range of amenities including a wide selection of shops and restaurants, sports facilities and a comprehensive range of schools, colleges and universities. There are two mainline railway stations serving the City with Canterbury West providing the High-Speed Link to London St. Pancras with a journey time of approx. 55 mins. Easy access can be gained onto the A2 to Dover and the M2 to London. The outlying east Kent countryside provides lovely walking and cycling.
