Welcome to Dupre Close, a home that understands modern life: great transport, easy schools, smooth motorway access... and still enough garden space to host a BBQ without elbowing your guests. This is Chafford Hundred living done right.

Tucked away in a peaceful residential close (translation: quiet enough to hear yourself think, not your neighbour's washing machine), this smart home is perfectly positioned for commuters, families, and anyone who enjoys being five minutes from everything but still sleeping well at night.

The train station is just under a mile away, whisking you directly to London Fenchurch Street—ideal for those who like their mornings efficient and their evenings back home on time. Prefer driving? The A13 and M25 are moments away, meaning Essex, London, Kent and beyond are all firmly within your postcode's reach.

Families, take note: Harris Academy and The Hathaway Academy are both easily accessible, making the school run refreshingly stress-free (no Olympic-level planning required).

Out back, you'll find a generous rear garden—perfect for summer evenings, children, pets, or just claiming some outdoor peace with a coffee and a bit of sun. To the front, allocated parking keeps life simple, because circling the block is nobody's idea of fun.

In short: this is a home that quietly gets on with being brilliant... while still being very happy to show off on social media
