The property is tucked away down 'Squeeze Belly Ally' in the heart of the fishing village of Port Isaac, just 30 yards from the picturesque harbour. The village itself has a thriving community and offers a range of local facilities and amenities catering for day to day needs. These include a doctor's surgery, primary school, public houses, excellent restaurants including the Michelin starred Fish Kitchen by Nathan Outlaw and regular local bus services to nearby towns. Perhaps best known for its association with a number of TV series, the village itself was the backdrop for the popular series Doc Martin. In years gone by it was a busy trading and fishing port with a myriad of narrow streets and traditional cottages arranged around the beach and harbour.

This beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment enjoys an enviable position just moments from the harbour and beach, offering an excellent opportunity as a permanent residence, coastal retreat or holiday let investment.

Accessed via an external flight of steps, the property opens through a charming stable door into a light and airy open-plan sitting room/kitchen, thoughtfully arranged to create a welcoming and sociable living space. The contemporary kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units together with integrated appliances including an electric oven and hob, under-counter fridge and composite sink with mixer tap.

An inner hallway leads to two bedrooms and a well-appointed shower room. The principal bedroom benefits from built-in storage cupboards, whilst the second bedroom features a wash hand basin.

To the front of the apartment is a delightful south-westerly facing courtyard, enjoying a sunny aspect and shared with the residents of Bakehouse Flats.
