GUIDE PRICE £725,000

3 Orchard Way was built only 8 years ago as part of what has become an especially sought after development within the North York Moors National Park, within an easy walk from the Market Place. The property blends a wonderfully traditional aesthetic with the credentials of a thoroughly modern home, constructed to the highest levels of energy efficiency, scoring an A95 in its EPC, ensuring it is exceptionally reasonable to run. Solar panels supplement the electricity system, there is underfloor heating to the ground floor, and an EV charge point to the garage. Current utility running costs equate to approximately £1,255 PA.

The property has been finished to a superb standard throughout, further improved by the owners who have had high quality flooring fitted throughout and commissioned custom designed bedroom fittings by local craftsmen Coxwold Cabinet Makers. The property amounts to 1,737 square feet which in brief comprises, entrance hallway, a large front facing sitting room and a separate cosy snug/study. The full run of the rear of the house comprises the stylishly appointed kitchen with living area and the dining area whose bi-fold doors open directly out onto the south facing terrace, creating an ideal flow of accommodation, well suited for entertaining making the most of the sun filled and sheltered grounds. There is an adjoining utility room and a separate ground floor cloakroom. Upstairs is a master bedroom with en-suite shower room, three further double bedrooms and the main house bathroom.

The property is set on a generous corner plot, with grounds to three sides. The rear garden is partially walled and being south facing is a sunny and very sheltered space. The garden has been carefully landscaped with an Indian stone flagged terrace, lawn and a number of ornamental trees and plantings carefully positioned to create colour and interest as well as privacy. There is parking for a number of vehicles on the driveway and within the double garage.

GARDEN & GROUNDS

3 Orchard Way occupies a sizable corner plot with grounds to three sides and sits back from the street, with low clipped hedges framing the house nicely and with an Indian stone path leading to the front door. The majority of the grounds face south and have been carefully landscaped to create an attractive, varied and colourful garden, with flowering cherry and silver birch trees. The garden is walled to the eastern boundary with mature beech hedging to the west and southern edges. A Corten steel water feature stands to one corner, and a well planted raised bed provides a wealth of colour and interest year-round to the side of the terrace. An Indian stone terrace lies to the immediate rear of the house with a path which leads around to the front of the property. There are outside water and electric supplies.
