Marlow, SL7 2EZ

- Large Plot
- 5500sqft Circa
- Close to the River
- Gated Entry
- Stunning finish throughouy
- Garage and Carport

Monks Hood is one of the most desirable homes on Ferry Lane—an elegant, spacious property set within beautifully landscaped, private grounds in the sought-after village of Medmenham.

Extending close to 5,500 sq ft, the house offers generous, well-designed living space including multiple reception rooms, an orangery, and a high-spec kitchen with Gaggenau appliances. The interiors are finished to an exceptional standard, with underfloor heating, air conditioning, and a calm, contemporary style throughout.

Upstairs, there are six well-proportioned double bedrooms, including a superb principal suite with dressing room and en suite, alongside several additional en suites.

The property sits within approximately 0.6 acres, accessed via electric gates, with a gravel driveway, mature gardens, garage, and carport. The rear garden is private and well screened, with lawn and seating areas.

Ferry Lane is one of Buckinghamshire's most desirable locations, leading directly to the River Thames, with a slipway nearby. Medmenham offers a peaceful village setting while being conveniently located for Marlow and Henley-on-Thames, both of which provide excellent amenities, transport links, and schooling options.
