Property Introduction

Located at the end of a quiet residential cul-de-sac, this modern two-bedroom home offers spacious living accommodation, allocated parking, a private, low-maintenance rear garden as well as being conveniently located for quick access to the A30.

Internally, the property comprises porch, living room, spacious kitchen/dining room, separate utility area as well as a ground floor WC. To the first floor you will find a generous principal bedroom, a well-proportioned second bedroom and the family bathroom.

Having gas central heating and an easy-to-maintain layout, we feel this home would be ideal for first-time buyers, young families or those looking for a low maintenance property in a convenient location.

Location

The home is conveniently positioned within walking distance of local shops, supermarkets, restaurants and Heartlands Park. For those who enjoy walking, Tuckingmill Valley Nature Park and nearby woodland trails are close by. There are multiple secondary and primary schools all within a ten minute drive as well as a couple of further education colleges.

Situated in an ideal position for accessing the town centres of both Camborne and Redruth and being only a few minutes away from the A30 taking you to city of Truro which is approximately fifteen miles away. Camborne is an historic town with a rich industrial history - reminders being evident around the local area with former engine houses and mine workings. Within the town centre, there are a number of well known high street shops, as well as independent retailers with access to the mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England.

Tehidy Woods is also within a close proximity, being a popular destination for families to enjoy this wooded country park and is also the gateway to the north coast with its incredible clifftop walks and beaches such as Portreath and Porthtowan.
