Westfield Avenue

NO CHAIN! Set within a quiet cul-de-sac in Heath, this beautifully presented detached bungalow has been carefully improved to create a home that feels both polished and easy to live in. A broad entrance hall, laid with refurbished parquet flooring, establishes the character of the interior and leads to a bright bay-fronted living room. Two double bedrooms sit comfortably apart from the principal living space, with the main bedroom enjoying its own dressing area, fitted sliding wardrobes and shower en suite.

At the rear, the kitchen diner forms the sociable heart of the home. Quartz worktops, integrated appliances and generous cabinetry give the space a crisp, practical finish, while French doors open directly onto the raised patio and garden beyond. A second shower room adds useful flexibility, and the adjoining conservatory provides an additional year-round sitting space with electric underfloor heating, glazed roof and doors onto the garden.

Outside, a generous block-paved driveway sits alongside established planting, while the rear garden unfolds from a raised terrace to a level shingled area and planted garden with vegetable beds and a timber summer house.

Westfield Avenue is well placed for the everyday amenities of Heath, Birchgrove and nearby Whitchurch, with shops, cafés and services along Caerphilly Road and Whitchurch Road. Heath Park offers extensive green space for walking and recreation, while Birchgrove Primary School is nearby, with further primary, secondary and Welsh-medium schooling across north Cardiff. Birchgrove, Rhiwbina and Ty Glas railway stations provide useful connections across the city, with the University Hospital of Wales and Cardiff city centre also readily accessible. Offered for sale with no onward chain.
