£800,000 Freehold

An elegant Victorian villa of exceptional elegance, beautifully preserved and presented, combining timeless architectural heritage with refined modern living, south west facing gardens, garage and gated parking together with separate coach house accommodation

FOR SALE FREEHOLD

Ash Hill House is a truly remarkable example of Victorian elegance, meticulously preserved to retain its original character whilst offering a sophisticated modern lifestyle. The property's impeccable presentation and striking façade set it apart, with its architectural detail carefully maintained.

Carrying a Grade II listing, the home delights with period features of extraordinary quality, ornate cornicing, deep skirting boards, beautifully crafted door frames and staircase, all completed by a bespoke colour scheme that enhances its charm and highlights its timeless elegance.

Generously proportioned throughout, the accommodation effortlessly adapts to a variety of lifestyle, with extensive living spaces, basement and a separate coach house that could serve as a home office, guest suite or private annexe.

The principal garden faces to the south west and captures sun throughout the day. It is thoughtfully designed and level, providing ideal space for relaxation and entertaining. A large balustraded terrace overlooks the garden which has a maintained lawn and mature planting creating a sense of privacy.

It is approached through imposing electric gates that open onto a spacious forecourt, providing ample parking and access to a single garage. A further gate leads to a private inner courtyard, offering additional parking and a walled area of garden, from this courtyard access is gained to the coach house.

Ash Hill Road enjoys an elevated location close to the heart of Torquay, combining period architecture with convenience and charm. Local amenities are excellent, with nearby shops, supermarkets and medical facilities within walking distance.

Torquay continues to evolve into a cosmopolitan seaside town where its Victorian heritage meets the functionality and style of modern life, creating a seamless harmony between past and present.

Home to Torquay Marina, the harbourside offers a growing café culture, with waterside bars, restaurants, boutique stores and galleries. The palm lined promenade leads to the main beaches of the town the gardens and heritage of Torre Abbey a focal point. The town has opportunity for sporting and leisure pursuits, with sailing, golfing and theatre all contributing to enhance the lifestyle experience. An ever increasing events calendar has much to offer from sea food festivals, open air concerts, air shows and yachting regattas. The South West Coast path runs along the water front leading to the beaches and hidden coves encircling the bay, a paradise for walkers and hikers.
