Set in the heart of the picturesque village of Grayrigg, this impressive and deceptively spacious semi-detached home enjoys breath-taking views of the Howgills and Lambrigg Fell. The property is surrounded by easy-to-maintain gardens and patio areas and also benefits from off-road parking for two vehicles, along with a detached single garage. The light-filled accommodation is arranged over two levels. The upper floor features a welcoming lounge, a dining hall, a separate kitchen, and a convenient cloakroom. On the lower level, you'll find three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom, making this a flexible and comfortable home ideal for a variety of lifestyles.
