Location

Tenbury Wells is a small, historic market town situated in the north west of Worcestershire, an area known for growing hops and cider apples. The River Teme, which runs along the edge of the town, separates Worcestershire and Shropshire; the Herefordshire border is less than a mile away. The famous 16th-century Tenbury Bridge, with its bend in the middle, crosses the Teme at one end of the main street and is considered to be the gateway to the town.

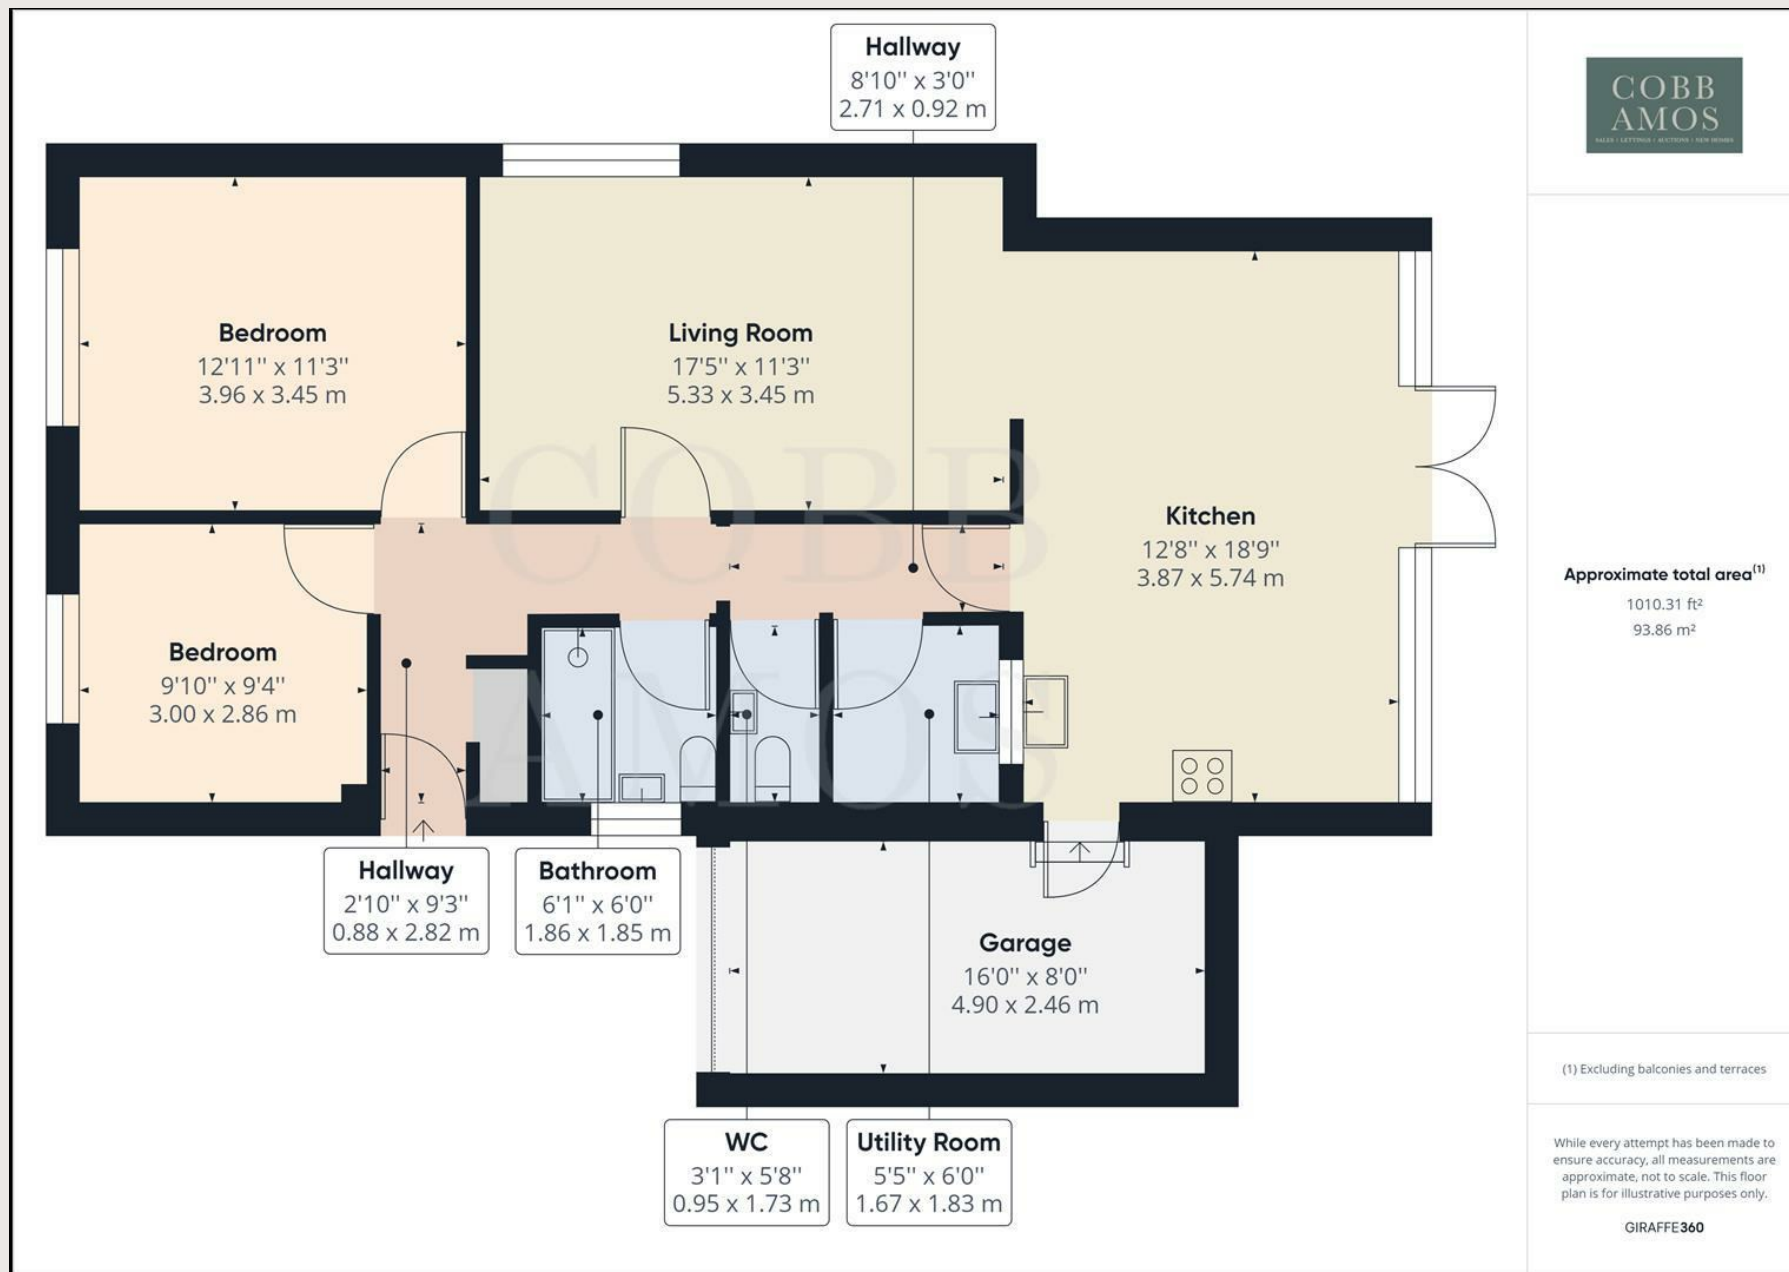

The town centre is a conservation area and contains a good selection of independent shops including specialist food shops selling local produce. The Round Market is open every Saturday and on Tuesdays the Country Market is open in the Scout Hut next to the Swimming Pool where you can buy plants, crafts goods and other local produce. There is also an excellent selection of places to eat and drink within the town.

DIRECTIONS
