MAYFAIR
TOWN & COUNTRY

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

 ONE-OF-A-KIND ELEGANT REGENCY HOME  Mayfair Town & Country are delighted to present The Wilderness, an exceptional Grade II Listed Regency residence dating from 1830–1832. Rich in period character and European architectural influence, this remarkable home seamlessly combines historic elegance with spacious, versatile family living.

Set back on the prestigious Highdale Road, the property enjoys exceptional privacy while being just moments from the vibrant Hill Road, renowned for its independent boutiques, cafés, restaurants, and the iconic Grade II listed pier.

A sweeping private driveway leads to the impressive entrance, framed by a regency wraparound veranda. Beyond the striking stained-glass front doors, a welcoming hallway provides access to the principal reception rooms.

The ground floor features a magnificent drawing room and formal dining room, each with floor-to-ceiling bay windows opening onto the gardens and beautiful marble fireplaces. A separate study overlooks the front lawn, ideal as a home office or additional reception room. The spacious kitchen with breakfast area flows into a cosy snug, while a family shower room completes this level.

The extensive cellar with its retained original features offers outstanding versatility, includes a workshop, tool room, utility, games area and a wine cellar.

The first floor comprises of five generous bedrooms, a family bathroom, separate W/C, and an en-suite. One of the principal bedrooms also enjoys a private balcony overlooking the front gardens.

The second floor, provides flexible accommodation including an additional bedroom, kitchenette, shower room, and reception room/seventh bedroom, ideal for guests, independent living, or a teenager's retreat.

First Floor Hallway

14'3" × 7'8" / 6'10" × 9'2" (4.36 × 2.34 / 2.1 × 2.8)

As you walk up the unique staircase with its curved mahogany rail there is a large stained glass window on the right which floods the landing with light and colour. This unique feature complements the elegance of the staircase .

Bedroom One

19'0" × 14'7" (5.8 × 4.46)

Currently the master bedroom, it's both airy and spacious . The dual aspect sash windows afford beautiful views of the hills, the sea and the back garden including the pool . The room is both cool in summer and warm in winter because of the shutters. These can be effectively used to withstand the extremes of temperatures in a heat wave . The room has fitted wardrobe cabinets and a wash basin .

Bedroom Two

13'5" × 7'8" (4.1 × 2.35)

Whilst this bedroom is known as the smaller of the rooms , it doesn't disappoint with its high ceiling and original sash window with views of Clevedon and the surrounding areas.

Bedroom Three

19'8" × 8'9" (6.01 × 2.67)

Another perfectly proportioned bedroom with dual aspect windows. The full shutters are excellent at reducing the heat in summer heatwaves. The room is light and airy with beautiful views of the mendips hills from one side and the tree tops on the other . It also has another marble and cast iron fireplace .

Bathroom

12'2" × 8'6" (3.72 × 2.61)

This modern four piece bathroom feels spacious, luxurious and light with a large frosted window. It is beautifully lit and decorated in a minimal and practical style with practical yet warm flooring.

Bedroom Four

13'11" × 15'1" (4.25 × 4.6)

Another grand bedroom with so many wonderful original features and architecture. Carpeted throughout, this bedroom really is a regal suite. Large French doors open on to a good sized balcony which has views over Clevedon, and the front lawn and is a perfect way to spend your mornings. Within this room you will find access to the en-suite.

En-suite

A perfect addition, the en-suite consists of a three-piece bathroom suite - a toilet, wash basin and bath with an overhead shower.

Bedroom Five

12'4" × 9'7" (3.78 × 2.94)

This bedroom again has a variety of uses. Accessed easily from the original servant's staircase - or this room can also be accessed across from bedroom four down a short flight of stairs. With views over the rear garden, this is a classic bedroom with built-in cabinetry.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A smaller room which is used for storage of tools and has plenty of practical shelving and lots of storage.

Gardens & Woodlands

The grounds of this property are one of the most show stopping areas of the whole home. As you approach the house you see the two hundred year old cedar that was planted when the house was built and there are lawns to the the front and back of the property.

The wildemess is surrounded by paths that lead to an orchard in the lower garden and raised beds for vegetables and flowers. They wrap around paths in the property taking you to the upper and lower gardens. The upper gardens have a private lawn and a wooden outhouse that can be used to relax in and observe nature. It has been also been used for beekeeping but could equally be used for art or other hobbies. The lower gardens have a variety of fruit trees and raised beds for growing vegetables.

Swimming Pool

33'0" x 14'10" (10.07 x 4.54)

The fully tiled pool has wide steps and safety rails around the perimeter. It is also enclosed with cast iron railings .It is an idyllic location completely private and surrounded by trees .

The pool has its own dedicated pump house and is heated

Driveway & Double garage

The sweeping drive entered into from Highdale Road leads to a double garage.

This is a highly versatile space and has been used for cars and or boats as well as storing beekeeping equipment .At the top there is a large area which can be used as a car park which easily fits six vehicles with room to turn .

The double garage, currently being used as extra storage - perfect for a property like this. It's a wonderful addition.

Location

This house is ideally located for access to all the clubs and groups that Clevedon offers. It is a short walk to the sea and the local sailing club and the marine lake. The grounds are extensive enough to enjoy complete privacy whilst being close to all the facilities that Clevedon has to offer. The house is in the catchment area of a local school that has had both good and outstanding reviews by Ofsted. It is also very convenient to get to Bristol airport in under thirty minutes & Yatton station in ten minutes which connects to Bristol & London.
