

Monck Street, SW1P

£800,000

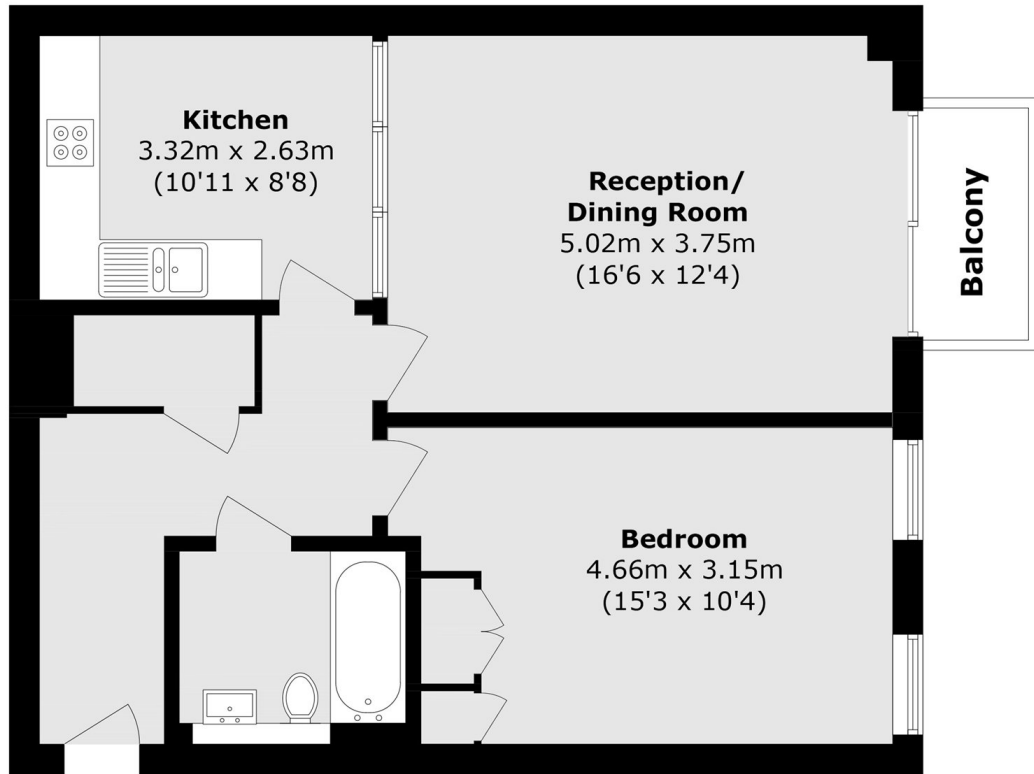

A modern one bedroom apartment on the fifth floor, with lift access, offered with vacant possession. The property includes a bright open-plan living area with internal glass partitioning between the kitchen and living space, allowing for good light and a sense of space. The kitchen is fitted with integrated appliances, and there is access to a private balcony. The bedroom is spacious with built in storage, along with a contemporary bathroom.

It is well positioned for access to a range of transport links including St James's Park, Westminster and Victoria, along with a wide selection of shops, restaurants and everyday amenities. Many of London's key landmarks, including the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey and the River Thames, are also within easy reach.
