Property Overview

Home of Leigh are delighted to present this beautiful character property, finished to an extremely high spec throughout. The attention to detail and elevated, contemporary design flows through the residence at each turn. From the impressive frontage to the considered colour palettes, this is a space that invites and welcomes.

The four bedroom property boasts a spacious entrance hall, with elegant wall panelling, art deco flooring and cutting edge lighting. A boutique style, open plan sitting room/dining area is both comfortable and opulent. And the well appointed kitchen is a chefs playground, with a bespoke island, high end cabinetry and natural light that floods in from the garden area.

Situated within a stones throw from Thorpe Bay Broadway with its range of eateries and independent shops, the beach is just a short stroll and with direct links into London Fenchurch street, this property is the perfect find for a family or professional commuters.

The area also enjoys close proximity to the golf, tennis and yacht club and all the perks of coastal living.
