About the property

This beautifully presented two-bedroom detached bungalow has been fully renovated throughout, offering stylish and move-in-ready accommodation. The property benefits from a brand-new contemporary kitchen and a modern fitted bathroom, both finished to a high standard.

There are two generous double bedrooms, providing comfortable living space for a range of buyers. A partially converted loft adds further versatility and could be utilised as a hobby room or extra storage, although access may require reconfiguration to optimise its use.

The property also features a useful basement with two good-sized rooms, ideal for storage, workshop space or additional household needs.

To the rear, a private garden provides an enjoyable outdoor space for relaxing, entertaining or gardening enthusiasts.

Combining modern upgrades with excellent additional space, this attractive detached bungalow offers flexible accommodation and is well suited to those seeking single-storey living with the added benefit of extensive storage and potential for further enhancement.
