Guide Price

This beautifully refurbished and updated period apartment is set on the highly regarded Stanbridge Road in the heart of West Putney, offering an exceptional blend of classic charm and contemporary style. Recently renovated throughout, the property provides a bright and airy living environment while retaining many attractive character features, including high ceilings and elegant corning.

The home has been newly repainted in neutral tones, creating a fresh blank canvas ready for any prospective buyer to personalise. New flooring has been laid throughout, and all switches and sockets have been replaced, enhancing both the aesthetic and practical finish of the property.

The accommodation is well balanced and thoughtfully arranged. An excellent sized entrance hallway provides a welcoming introduction while to the front, a spacious reception room enjoys generous proportions and an abundance of natural light, making it ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. The bedroom is well sized and benefits from fitted wardrobes, maximising storage while maintaining a clean, streamlined look. The newly fitted kitchen is sleek and stylish, complete with granite worktops and modern cabinetry, offering both functionality and visual appeal. A contemporary three-piece bathroom suite completes the accommodation.

Stanbridge Road is known for its attractive period properties and convenient location. West Putney offers an appealing village like atmosphere while remaining well connected. Putney mainline station provides swift access
