Situation

North Newington is a highly sought-after and picturesque village located just to the west of Banbury, surrounded by attractive rolling countryside. The village has a strong sense of community with a variety of events taking place throughout the year. The primary school is extremely popular which also provides a hall for village activities and The Blinking Owl public house is popular with walkers. As well as having its own primary school, the village is well served by a range of highly regarded schools in both the state and independent sectors, making it particularly appealing to families. Leisure opportunities are plentiful, with the surrounding countryside offering excellent walking, cycling and riding, along with a number of nearby golf courses and sports facilities. The nearby market town of Banbury provides a comprehensive range of amenities including shops, supermarkets, schools and leisure facilities, together with a mainline railway station offering regular services to London Marylebone. The M40 (Junction 11) is also easily accessible, providing excellent road links to Oxford, Birmingham and London. In addition, Soho Farmhouse is approximately 8 miles away, offering a renowned private members' club with a range of leisure facilities.
