The Elms, Millditch
Bratton, Westbury

Property Description

The Elms is a Detached Edwardian Property built by a local businessman Henry Reeves as a wedding present for his son Robert Reeves in 1901. The Reeves family owned and ran Reeves Ironworks in the village and The Elms remained in the Reeves family until 1993.

An elegant & imposing period home nestled in a private & secluded setting and is tastefully styled throughout and whilst it has been upgraded and improved by the current owners, the property retains many original features including high ceilings, large windows & fireplaces.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and comprises Entrance Hall, Drawing Room, Lounge, Two Snug's, Office, Large Kitchen / Dining Space, Landing with Feature Bay Window, Four Bedrooms, Three Shower Rooms & extensive grounds. There is also a Detached One Bedroom Annex in the grounds which could be used as a studio, work space or a dependant family member.

The grounds are another feature and are well laid out and maintained. From the driveway, there are areas laid to lawn with mature trees providing some natural shade which loops around to the annex. Several seating areas dotted around - all lend themselves to entertain family & friends, or just to enjoy the scenery.

This beautiful property would make a fabulous family home and with that in mind, we recommend an early viewing to appreciate the accommodation & location....
