This is a perfect family home nestled in the sought after area of Hillgate Village, set over three levels. The house is entered directly through to the open plan living space with enough room for a dining area. The lower ground floor has second reception room that would be ideal for a child's playroom or fourth bedroom. Beyond that, there is separate kitchen with appliances including a dishwasher, gas hob and an oven. There is also a modern family bathroom on this floor.

Leading back up the stairs to the first floor, you're met with the second bedroom that has good built in storage. The principle bedroom is based at the front of the house with floor to ceiling wardrobes on one wall and two large windows that flood home with light.

There is another family bathroom with a bath, and a third smaller room at the top of the house.

Located within Hillgate Village you will have easy access to the local amenities of Notting Hill Gate and be a stones throw from Fox Primary School.
