Hillcroft is a charming seven bedroom detached house, originally constructed by the renowned local builder, Mr. Moon, in the late 1890s. Built to his own exacting standards, the property offers stunning views of Rotherfield Church Spire visible in the distance. Surrounded by generous gardens, Hillcroft enjoys a private and secluded setting, complete with a garage and off-road parking. The house is full of character, boasting features such as an inglenook fireplace, oriel windows, and spacious accommodation spread over three floors. The current owner has treasured this remarkable home for approximately 35 years, and properties of this size and location are a rare find on the market.

SITUATION:

Rotherfield is a picturesque village in the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, rich in history and surrounding open countryside. The village itself is a welcoming community with local charities and societies offering plenty of activities throughout the year for all ages. Rotherfield Stores is a useful convenience shop with a post office whilst there are also two public houses, a chemist, doctors' surgery, and the historic St Deny's Church. For transport, it is served with a frequent bus service, stopping at nearby villages as well as Royal Tunbridge Wells and Eastbourne. For city links, Crowborough train station is just a short drive away with ample parking available. Gatwick airport is also within easy reach with access by car taking less than an hour. For education, there is a popular pre-school as well as Rotherfield primary school. Further educational facilities are available within all the surrounding villages and towns. There are plenty of countryside walks on the doorstep with Millennium Green and Hornshurst Woods popular choices. There is a large recreational ground in the village with a play park, Bowles green and football pitch. All in all, a desirable place for families to grow in a safe village built on a great community spirit.
