The Property

A lovely three bedroom 1920s home, set on a well-regarded road in central Didcot. The house opens into an entrance hall leading to a large reception room with a feature log burner. To the rear, there is a modern kitchen with a dining area. A downstairs WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs there are three good-sized bedrooms. The main bedroom has a door leading to a dressing room or walk-in wardrobe, and there is a family bathroom on this floor.

Externally, the property has a large driveway at the front with space for three cars, side access, and an east-facing garden at the rear. The garden is well kept and low maintenance. The property has been cared for over the years and offers a practical layout while retaining character. Its central location makes it easy to access local shops, schools, and amenities.

Some material information to note:

Tenure - Freehold house. The property has gas central heating and is connected to mains water, electricity and drainage. The property has driveway parking. Ofcom checker indicates standard to ultrafast broadband is available at this postcode. Ofcom checker indicates mobile availability is fine with major providers. The government portal generally highlights this as an unlikely/low risk address for flooding. According to GOV.UK the property is subject to low flood risk. Properties built or renovated pre-1999 may contain asbestos in certain building materials e.g. Artex, vinyl tiles, sheet boards and corrugated roofing, pipework and lagging/insulation. These are generally considered safe unless disturbed but prospective buyers must take their own advice. We are not aware of any planning permissions in place which would negatively affect the property. Further information relating to 'The Register of Title' can be requested from the estate agent.
