As you enter the hallway you get a real family vibe. The stairs rise to the first floor, and you have doors accessing all ground floor accommodation. Each room has its own personality, with a sizeable family room which has a large front facing window, allowing natural light to flood the room. The focal point of this room is a cast iron fireplace with wooden surround. The living room is situated to the rear of the property, and offers a real relaxing space, with double doors and views over the rear garden. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and drawers, complemented with work surfaces and an inset one and a half bowl drainer unit. This area seamlessly flows in to the dining area which has double doors opening to the rear garden. For additional benefits to the ground floor, the property has internal access to single garage, utility room and cloakroom.

From the first-floor landing there is access to four double bedrooms, and a generous single bedroom. The primary bedroom benefits from a private en-suite with a bath tub. Additionally, there is a family shower room with separate WC.

Externally the property benefits from a well-stocked, private rear garden, with lawn and large decking ideal for outside entertaining. There is an additional gravelled area to the rear of the garden. To the front, the property boasts a gravelled driveway for four or more vehicles, access to garage, and gated side access.

The small village of Bow Brickhill is situated to the outskirts of Milton Keynes. There is a popular lower school, pub/restaurant and Brickhill Woods on your doorstep. There is a railway station with trains running to Bletchley and Bedford. Also nearby is the famous Woburn Golf Club and good road access to the A5, Woburn Sands, Bletchley, Central Milton Keynes.
