 4  1  3

This delightful and deceptively spacious four-bedroom end row residence is one not to be missed. The current owner has loved and cared for it over the years, creating a place you can just drop in your furniture and start to enjoy for many years to come. Having the benefit of a large multi-car driveway at front, and a sunny rear, along with three reception rooms and lots of original features. Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac only a short walk to an array of handy corner shops, Vale Park and the promenade, as well as being close to frequent transport services and commuter links. Interior: hallway, living room, sitting room, dining room and kitchen on the ground floor. Off the first-floor landing there are the four bedrooms, and the family bathroom. Complete with uPVC double glazing and gas central heating. Viewing is essential!
