The Property in Brief...

Impressive square footage, an impressive plot, & an equally impressive location

This home offers an exceptional amount of versatile living space, positioned on a secluded plot overlooking stunning field views within a quiet cul-de-sac of just three houses. Its idyllic setting feels private & secure, while the property itself is presented in immaculate condition. The current owners have extensively renovated the home, creating a stylish modern vibe throughout & redesigning the layout to provide fantastic open-plan living finished to a high standard.

Spanning almost 2,500 sq ft, the quirky and flexible layout will appeal to a wide range of buyers, whether you are looking for multiple reception rooms, generous family accommodation, or multigenerational living potential. The property is currently arranged with a spacious entrance hall leading to all ground-floor accommodation. The kitchen is the latest transformation formerly two separate rooms, now completely opened up into a stunning entertaining space featuring underfloor heating, large central island & dining area that truly forms the hub of the home.

The lounge is wonderfully spacious, with standout features including a multi fuel burner & an orangery-style opening onto the garden. Two further generous reception rooms provide excellent flexibility & could easily serve as additional double bedrooms, while the current owners utilise them as a substantial home office & family/games room. A utility, cloakroom & double garage complete the downstairs.

Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms alongside a refitted family bathroom featuring a modern four-piece suite.

Outside, the gardens wrap around the property bordered by mature shrubs with an abundance of trees creating a wonderful private outdoor space full of life. Gated access leads to ample parking to the front.

Without doubt, this is a rare opportunity to purchase a substantial & beautifully presented home in one of Finedon's most sought-after locations.
