Lydbrook is a village located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire, England. Situated in the western part of the Forest of Dean, it is approximately 7 miles (11 kms) south of the market town of Ross-on-Wye.

Lydbrook is known for its scenic location along the River Wye and its proximity to the beautiful Wye Valley. The village is surrounded by picturesque woodlands, offering ample opportunities for outdoor activities such as walking, hiking, and exploring nature trails. The location of Lydbrook provides easy access to nearby attractions such as Symonds Yat, a popular spot for outdoor enthusiasts, and the Forest of Dean, which offers a host of activities and attractions, including the Sculpture Trail and Puzzlewood.

Lydbrook offers a range of amenities to cater to the needs of its residents. These include a village shop, a primary school, a community centre, and a pub. The village hosts various events throughout the year, including festivals and community gatherings.

The property is approached via an oak-framed porch set on reclaimed brickwork with paved flooring. The entrance is enhanced by outside lighting and a security camera, leading to the front door which features an obscure glazed panel inset. From here, access is provided into the:

PARKING

The property is approached via a pair of wooden gates opening onto a concrete driveway and parking area with space for 8–10 vehicles.

OUTSIDE

The driveway is flanked by flower borders, shrubs, bushes, and trees, with a large pond providing an attractive focal point.

From here, gated access leads to a paddock, set on sloping ground and enclosed by fencing and hedging. Steps and a gateway connect to a lower paddock, which includes a shed and workshop, along with further vehicle access from the bottom.

Additional features include outside lighting, a security camera, and an alarm system. A further pair of wooden gates provide access to additional driveway parking at the front of the property.

To the side, a decking area enclosed by large gabion walls creates an ideal space for entertaining. The garden is mainly laid to lawn, enclosed by fencing and hedging, with the benefit of outside power points. The property is served by an oil-fired central heating and domestic hot water boiler.

DIRECTIONS

From the Mitcheldean office, proceed down to the mini roundabout, turning right onto the A4136. Proceed up over Plump Hill and upon reaching the traffic lights at Nailbridge, continue straight over signposted to Coleford. Continue along, taking the turning right at the Myrestock crossroads, signposted to Lydbrook. Proceed towards the village centre, passing a small industrial estate on the left hand side. The road will bear to the left, then to the right. Just after here on the left hand side, a turning will be signposted to Camomile Green. Turn left and as you reach the hairpin, take a small turning to the right where the property can be found after a short distance on the right hand side.
