

OAKFIELD

Marine Court, St. Leonards-On-Sea
£2,000 Per Calendar Month

SUMMARY

Set in a Grade II-listed art deco building on the seafront in St Leonards-on-Sea, this light-filled two-bedroom penthouse apartment has a wraparound balcony with far-reaching ocean views.

On entering the living room, the incredible south-facing private balcony can be seen through sliding glazed doors. There are remarkable sea views beyond, and natural light throughout the day.

The kitchen has been sensitively renovated, with white curved cabinetry mimicking the frontage of the building. Appliances have been neatly integrated within. A door from here provides another point of access out to a rear terrace with views across to the cliffs over the town's rooftops.

There are two bright spacious bedrooms. One overlooks the seafront, the other overlooks the town rooftops and churches.

In the bathroom, black and white chequerboard tiles and Lefroy Brooks sanitary ware gesture towards the building's art deco heritage.

The first foundations of Marine Court were laid in 1936, with construction completed in 1938. An early pioneer of steel-frame construction, the building is 14 storeys high and sits broadside to the seafront. Its form was took inspiration from the Queen Mary, a transatlantic cruise ship which entered commercial service in 1936.
