Saltdean, Brighton

This detached two-bedroom bungalow offers an excellent opportunity for those seeking a peaceful home with the convenience of nearby amenities and picturesque outlooks. Situated in a highly desirable location, the property backs onto open fields, providing a tranquil setting, while remaining just moments from local bus stops and scenic downland walks, ensuring easy access to both natural surroundings and transport links to town and city centres.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious entrance hall leading into a generously proportioned lounge, where large windows frame nice views towards the Telscombe Tye and across Saltdean. The kitchen is well laid out, offering ample storage and workspace with space for appliances and a range of matching wall cupboards. The kitchen would now benefit from some updating.
