Description

The property which has a full fire alarm and smoke alarm system also has the benefit of private parking for 2 to 3 cars at the rear. It's located in one of Harrogate's most popular town centre positions only a short walk away from Harrogate railway station and the bus station.

Carefully updated and presented by the current owner this charming period property has been converted into four well-maintained apartments that feature Worcester Bosch gas fired central heating boilers and replacement double glazed windows.

Harrogate is a popular town that has a wide variety of shops, bars and restaurants. It also offers a good road and rail link connecting the traveller and commuter to Leeds York and London.

Each apartment has its own secure entrance hall and features a lounge, kitchen, double bedroom and bathroom.

Internal inspection strongly recommended.

Agents note - please note for viewing access we have to give the tenants 48 hours notice.
