Location

The Fabric Building is situated in the heart of Leicester's Cultural Quarter, giving excellent access to the city centre with its professional quarters and railway station (with mainline access to London St Pancras in just over an hour) along with the abundance of trendy bars, restaurants and shopping facilities.

Accommodation

The property is accessed via a communal entrance hall housing the postboxes and the stairs and lift to all floors. The apartment itself is entered via bright and a welcoming hallway with laminate flooring, housing a large, useful storage cupboard.

The open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area is a fantastic space combining character and contemporary style, with high ceilings and exposed brickwork further enhancing the apartment's industrial aesthetic.

The kitchen area is fitted with a good range of modern, grey eye and base level units and drawers complemented by marble effect worktops, tiled splashbacks, laminate flooring and feature pendant lighting. Integrated appliances include an Indesit induction hob, oven and extractor fan, an Indesit fridge-freezer and a Beko washing machine with a stainless steel sink and drainer above.

The living area houses a separate boiler cupboard providing additional storage, boasts further feature pendant lighting and impressive floor-to-ceiling glazing and patio doors opening onto a private balcony, allowing for an abundance of natural light.

The double bedroom is well-proportioned and continues the characterful theme with exposed brickwork, high ceilings, and a large window allowing plenty of natural light.

The bathroom is fitted with a three-piece suite comprising a panelled bath with shower over, glazed shower door and tiled surround, a wash hand basin set on a vanity unit with storage beneath and WC. Marble-effect flooring and glass brick detailing allow for soft natural light, creating a bright and modern finish.

Parking

The apartment benefits from one allocated parking space.
