Location

The property will be found in the centre of the popular and well regarded village of Bredfield. The village benefits from a community run village shop and well supported village hall. Bredfield is only three miles from the historic market town of Woodbridge, which is situated on the banks of the River Deben and provides an excellent array of facilities including shops, boutiques, restaurants, a swimming pool, theatre and cinema, doctors' surgery and railway station. Trains from the station connect to Ipswich with some direct trains through to London's Liverpool Street station. There are several sailing clubs and marinas in the town, and various golf courses within a few miles. Woodbridge also has excellent schooling in both the state and private sector. The County town of Ipswich lies about 10 miles to the south-west and other areas of the Heritage Coast are within easy reach with the popular centres including Orford, Aldeburgh, Thorpeness and Southwold.

Description

The Town House is a charming period dwelling which is understood to originally have been Almshouses and is thought to have been originally two, then three dwellings. It is believed to date from 1655 and was Grade II Listed in 1988. The house, which is of timber framed construction with a brick plinth, rendered elevations and a plain tile roof, offers well laid out accommodation over two floors. The property benefits from a gas fired central heating system along with mains drainage. The house has scope for extensions, subject to the normal consents.

The main door to the front of the house provides access to a hallway. This has a hatch to the roof space, radiator, door to the sitting room and further doors to a downstairs shower room and study. The study, which some may choose to use as a fourth bedroom, has a leaded light Crittall window overlooking the garden, and fitted shelving. There is a radiator and also built-in cupboard which houses the combi boiler. The downstairs shower room comprises a WC, hand wash basin with cupboard below and shower with an electric unit. The sitting room has windows and a glazed door opening to the south facing patio and garden. At one end is a fireplace with wood burning stove. Within the room is a feature radiator and white washed timbers. A door provides access to a dining room, with stairs rising to the first floor landing and a door to the kitchen. The room has exposed timbers, a brick fireplace and built-in cupboard. There are also windows to the front of the property. The vaulted kitchen is dual aspect with windows to the south and west. There are a range of high and low level units with a work surface and one and a half bowl stainless steel sink with drainer and taps above an integrated fridge, freezer, electric oven and hob. In addition, there is space and plumbing for a washing machine and slimline dishwasher. The room has tiled flooring, a radiator and a pantry. A glazed door leads to the south facing garden.

On the first floor, there is a landing with two dormer windows overlooking the garden. There is also a hatch to the roof space. Doors lead off to the three bedrooms and bathroom. Bedroom one is a double room with radiator and east facing leaded light Crittall window with secondary glazing. The second bedroom is a single with exposed timbers and north facing leaded light window with secondary glazing with fine views of the village church. Adjacent to this is a bathroom comprising WC, bath, hand wash basin, towel radiator and conservation skylight. Bedroom three is a dual aspect double bedroom with exposed timbers and lead light windows with secondary glazing with north facing views of the church and far reaching west facing views towards open countryside.

Outside

The property is situated away from The Street and accessed via a shingle drive which leads to a parking area. From here there is access to a large single garage which is of block construction with rendered elevations under a tiled roof. The garden lies to the south of the house and abutting the dwelling is a patio and then lawn with shrubs and flowers. The garden, which extends to 0.22 acres, is enclosed by hedging and the northern boundary of the property is flush with the house with the churchyard beyond.
