This spacious two-bedroom upper flat on Northcote Street offers an impressive main bedroom, open-plan living space and convenient access to South Shields town centre.

The property has its own ground-floor entrance and internal staircase leading to the main accommodation. At the front is an unusually generous principal bedroom, with a broad bay window bringing in plenty of natural light and more than enough room for a full range of bedroom furniture.

The second bedroom is smaller but would work well as a single bedroom, child's room or home office.

To the rear, the lounge and kitchen form one sociable open-plan space, finished with grey wood-effect flooring. The kitchen is fitted with white gloss units, pale worktops, an integrated oven and electric hob, while the living area provides room for both seating and a dining table.
