DESCRIPTION

An impressive period home that has been meticulously maintained throughout. The house offers exceptionally light and spacious accommodation while retaining its beautiful period features. In addition to the large and bright reception/living spaces, there are 3 double bedrooms on the first floor. A self-contained lower ground floor comprising three rooms plus contemporary shower room offers flexible accommodation and would suit a variety of uses. The house is complemented by a pretty, extensive south-facing garden to the rear planted with mature shrubs.

ACCOMODATION

An impressive front door leads from the entrance porch into the inner hallway giving access to the kitchen/dining room, sitting room, useful cloakroom with shower and utility room. The kitchen/dining room is a bright and sociable space flooded with natural light from the feature bay window with eye-catching, elevated views. A range of units provide excellent storage and built-in appliances include; inset gas hob, 1½ bowl sink, twin high-level oven, space/plumbing for white goods. The large and well-proportioned sitting room with its high ceilings and wide, full-height bay window gives a sense of elegance and style. Steps from the bay window door lead to the garden and drip with gorgeous wisteria, complementing the lovely views from this room. Stairs from the hallway lead to the first floor landing which in turn gives access to three generous double bedrooms and family bathroom. Both Bedroom 1 and Bedroom 2 face south with magnificent, uninterrupted views. Bedroom 3 faces west and is a similarly light and impressive room. The family bathroom is fitted with WC, feature wash basin and bath. The landing also gives access to a useful airing cupboard and separate deep storage cupboard.

A separate staircase from the ground floor hallway leads to the lower ground floor. The whole of this floor could be used independently of the main house as it has dedicated access from the garden. Currently used as an artist's studio, the main room is spacious and made cosy by a log burner with views from the bay window to the south-facing garden. There are three further rooms, currently used as two bedrooms and an office plus stylish shower room and separate WC/washroom, making this a very versatile space. Throughout the property there is plenty of storage space and a fully boarded loft lined with deep insulation.

OUTSIDE

The house is set back from Northdown Road with three garages to the front of the property and additional spaces for two vehicles provide plenty of storage and private parking. At the rear, steps adorned by mature trailing wisteria lead to the attractive and very private gardens with decking and seating areas making this a peaceful haven ideal for summer entertaining.
