DESCRIPTION

The Farriers occupies a delightful position within the grounds of the historic Swettenham Hall, as part of an exclusive development of just eight exceptional homes. Once the Hall's stable block and outbuildings, this stunning property was constructed in 1999, forming one of four thoughtfully designed new build homes alongside four characterful conversions. Tucked away at the end of a long private drive, with sweeping views over the Dane Valley and set in over seven acres of private gardens, managed landscaped courtyard and paddocks, each house has the benefit of double garaging and stabling for one horse allowing residents enjoy all the benefits of country estate life.

The immaculately maintained grounds, sense of community, and timeless setting make this a rare and enviable place to call home.

With its appealing Cheshire brick elevations, it has been meticulously constructed with exceptional attention to detail. Beneath its slate-tiled roof, beautifully painted timber windows complement the carefully pointed brickwork, giving the property a timeless elegance. The striking double-height glazed window stands as a signature feature, offering further architectural merit.

From the moment you step inside the entrance hall, there is an immediate sense of arrival. A striking double-height space with a full-height glazed window floods the area with natural light, while exposed brickwork, solid oak flooring, and the handcrafted oak doors throughout the property create a warm and timeless atmosphere. The centrepiece of this home is the bespoke Neville Johnson staircase, crafted in oak with glazed balustrades, a statement feature that flows through all three floors.

The ground floor is designed for both practicality and flexibility. A useful double-sized cloak cupboard, study and a guest WC sit just off the hall, while a versatile family room could serve equally well as a dining room or snug, enjoying garden views through large picture windows. The principal living space is the family dining kitchen, which spans the depth of the house and is bathed in natural light from both front and rear elevations. Beautifully fitted with a handcrafted David Lisle kitchen, quartz work surfaces and high-end integrated appliances, it offers an ideal setting for everyday living and entertaining. An adjoining dining space opens through doors onto the garden, blending indoor and outdoor living seamlessly. Completing this level is a well-appointed utility room that adds valuable practicality.

Externally, the property continues to impress. To the front there is a landscaped garden with mature beds and borders, a residents driveway with parking for two vehicles, and additional visitor spaces. The rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create a true outdoor retreat, with year-round colour from carefully planted borders, extensive Indian stone patios for dining and entertaining, a pagoda draped in mature wisteria, and open views across paddocks. The southerly orientation ensures the garden is filled with light throughout the day. Beyond the garden, the property has a double garage with electric up-and-over doors, eaves storage, and a separate store room.

As part of the Swettenham Hall estate, The Farriers enjoys shared access paddocks for grazing, an all-weather arena, and a timber stable block, with one stable allocated to the property.

In addition to its generous accommodation of over 2,000 square feet across three floors, The Farriers offers an enviable lifestyle combining the charm of traditional materials with the benefits of modern construction, this is a home of distinction, perfectly suited to families, professionals and downsizers alike.
