A modern Georgian-style staircase window provides an attractive feature as you ascend to the first floor, with inset glass blocks adding further natural light to the kitchen area. The spacious open plan living and dining room provides an excellent social space, enjoying dual aspect windows overlooking the front and rear. The contemporary fitted kitchen is open to the living accommodation and comprises a range of wall and base units with complementary work surfaces, inset stainless steel sink and drainer and co-ordinating part-tiled walls. Integrated appliances include an electric oven, four-ring gas hob with stainless steel extractor hood over, fridge/freezer and dishwasher.

The second floor landing benefits from a window, useful storage cupboard housing the wall-mounted boiler and access to the loft. There are two well proportioned double bedrooms, with one enjoying a front aspect and the other overlooking the rear.

The bathroom is fitted with a three-piece suite comprising; panel bath with shower over, wash hand basin and WC, complemented by part-tiled walls, tiled floor, heated towel rail and window.

To the front of the property is a shared traditional cobbled yard, together with an integral garage having an up-and-over door, power and lighting.

The property enjoys a particularly convenient location close to Kendal town centre, with its excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities. Gooseholme and the River Kent are also within easy reach, while the surrounding area provides excellent access to the Lake District and wider South Lakeland.

An appealing opportunity to acquire a spacious and flexible town house in a highly convenient Kendal location, offering versatile accommodation, an integral garage and no onward chain. Early viewing is highly recommended.

Situated within easy walking distance of the town centre, yard 51 can be found just off Stramongate. The entrance to the cobbled yard can be found between the office of James Brearly and Stramongate House. Turn into the courtyard ("Yard 51" is on a plate on the archway) and number 3 is then on your left. Access to the garage is via a private lane off New Road just after Specialist Cars and the Quaker Tapestry meeting house.

Viewings: Strictly by appointment with Hackney & Leigh.

Anti Money Laundering Regulations: Please note that when an offer is accepted on a property, we must follow government legislation and carry out identification checks on all buyers under the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations (AML). We use a specialist third-party company to carry out these checks at a charge of £60.00 (inc. VAT) per individual or £50.00 (incl. vat) per individual, if more than one person is involved in the purchase (provided all individuals pay in one transaction). The charge is non-refundable, and you will be unable to proceed with the purchase of the property until these checks have been completed. In the event the property is being purchased in the name of a company, the charge will be £150 (incl. vat).
