"We've loved summer afternoons in our suntrap garden, with BBQs, lawn games and friends. Our friendly cul-de-sac has neighbours who'll happily chat, cat sit or water plants. The 24-hour corner shop and post office are almost dangerously convenient for late-night chocolate cravings! Barlett's Bridge makes North Street and East Street an easy walk, with Parson Street station and plenty of buses nearby. It feels quiet and tucked away, while still being close to everything"
